■Exhibition full of cats is full of spring taste highlight!!

[First time in Nagoya, seasonal artworks and 3D artwork of the Star cat!]

In this first spring exhibition in Nagoya, contents will be renewed in spring taste. We have not only popular artworks but also artworks with spring taste and local artwork/limited goods sales. There will be more than 300 artworks and 2000 goods for sale. Especially, the 3D artwork you can touch which is the collaboration of popular sculptor Mio Hashimoto and the Star cat Hoippu is a must-see! Also, there will be the pop-up store of Skog Marknad which is popular in every exhibition.

[Collaboration project with Tokai Walker, Find “the local Star cat of Nagoya”!]

This time, as a memorial of Nagoya exhibition, there will be a collaboration project with Tokai Walker. Nagoya local Star cat will be chosen from those who applied during the application period in SNS such as Twitter and Instagram! The selected cat will be exhibited in “Neko-Break Exhibiton” and also be on the gravure & front page of Tokai Walker!

* For detail, please refer to the special website previewed to be open in mid April!

<New local fallen hair artwork by rojiman!!>

rojiman, famous for cat’s fallen hair artworks that everyone enjoys in each visiting exhibition, will exhibit collaboration artwork with “Grampus kun”, the mascot character of Nagoya Grampus Eight. It was a dragon in Hong Kong and Paru-chan (mascot of S-pulse) in Shizuoka. Don’t miss the latest!
